Looking for a totally renovated building to start a new business? Here it is! This gorgeous building has been historically restored to all its glory by Homer Main Street! Homer Main Street around the square is thriving and has businesses in most of the buildings. Located on the main throughfare headed in to Homer, you can showcase your goods in the picturesque windows on the front of the building. Main Street and several other groups host numerous events throughout the year, which in turn drives customers to frequent your business! Several of the buildings are either under renovation or in negotiations with future investors who see Homers potential and want to capitalize on its' robust town square! This space is an open canvas for you to start a new business or move your current business and hit the ground running. Totally updated, restored & ready to move in! Fresh paint, new electrical, new HVAC, new bathroom & fixtures. Schedule your appointment today!
